

Claudio Vazquez-Medina
ASSOCIATE

International Trade & Customs

claudio.vazquez@ecrubio.com

Monterrey
T. +52 (86) 8828 0870

Claudio Vázquez Medina specializes in Administrative/Customs litigation, as well as international trade consulting in matters related to international treaties, IMMEX Program (Maquiladora), exemption of duty deferral programs and customs compliance. As well in non-tariff regulations and restrictions compliance, and corporate compliance.

Relevant Matters

Defense attorney in customs administrative procedures and litigations before Customs and Federal Administrative Courts in Mexico.

Participation in He has participated in acquisition and operation of various development programs and certifications in customs and foreign trade matters, such as IMMEX, PROSEC, VAT Certification, among others), for Mexican and multinational business.

He has assisted several clients in foreign trade and customs audits focused on compliance with IMMEX and VAT certification obligations.

He has assisted several clients in the suspension/cancellation of their importer registration and VAT Certification.

Assisted several clients in Conclusive Agreement Procedures before the Mexican (PRODECON) regarding audits focused on compliance with IMMEX and VAT Certification obligations.

Assisted a worldwide client in the automotive industry in a project involving origin issues in terms of the treaties to which Mexico is part (Europe and LATAM).

Assisted a worldwide client in the alcoholic and spirit beverage industry in a project involving origin issues in terms of the treaties to which Mexico is part in LATAM.

Recognitions and Memberships

Admission to Phi Delta Phi International Legal Fraternity, Ayala Villarreal Inn.

Admission to Phi Delta Phi Monterrey Barrister Inn.

Education

Universidad Autónoma de Nuevo León; Law Degree (2024).

Languages

Spanish and English.

ecrubio.com

FB: @ECRubioMx

LI: EC Rubio

TW: @ecrubiomx

