Fernanda joined EC Rubio in June 2023 as an Associate. She has solid professional experience, focusing her practice on corporate law and mergers and acquisitions (M&A).

She has advised both national and international companies across a variety of industries, providing legal counsel from the incorporation and maintenance of business entities to complex transactional operations and corporate restructurings. She has participated in numerous M&A transactions, including due diligence processes, share purchase agreements, and capital increases for large and high-profile companies.

Her skill set also includes the drafting, review, and negotiation of commercial and corporate agreements, as well as ongoing compliance with legal and regulatory obligations. She has experience in regulatory analysis, drafting corporate minutes, shareholder agreements, and capital structures.

Fernanda complements her professional practice with specialized training in areas such as Insurance and Bonding Law, ESG (Environmental, Social, and Governance), and Art Law. This background allows her to offer a comprehensive approach to regulatory compliance and risk management. She has also delivered compliance training courses aimed at fostering a culture of legality within organizations. Additionally, she is an active member of Abogadas MX, a network dedicated to promoting the professional development and leadership of women in the legal field.
